OUTDOOR MINISTRY REPORT

The Outdoor Ministry committee has been rather quiet for the past few months but is beginning to gear up for the 2009 camp season.

1. Dates for the 2009 camp season have been determined and published.
2. Theme material for this year is: "Breakthrough." The curriculum is based on looking at a different story in the Gospels of Jesus encountering people. The daily themes are: Jesus Welcomes, Jesus Listens, Jesus Shows Compassion, Jesus Loves, Jesus Transforms and Jesus Invites.
2. Material has been sent to a design artist to prepare the poster for this year. That is in the works.
3. We proposed the idea of a Diversity Camp (multi-ethnic) for 2009 but that will probably be put on hold until 2010 so that the anti-racism team can work with the directors to make a strong camp. Not sure we are quite ready to pull it off this year.
4. A Director's Training needs to be scheduled. We did a phone conference call last year and that worked well since most of the directors are returnees. We have set a date for the end of April for a counselor training session.
